

Art of drinking Vodka

"There are only two absolutes in life: friends and vodka. And the best times usually involve both"

1. Vodka must be cold
2. Without salty snacks vodka can not disclose all of it qualities
3. Drink vodka with small glass
4. Drink vodka quickly
5. Don't mix vodka
6. Vodka created for joy, removing fatigue and stress. Personal control of the dose of alcohol is very important.

Snacks are essential to assess the true meaning of vodka as a drink. I have a combination of the following, Doost yogurt dishes, Salted cucumber, Antipasto Misto, Mazah Platter

With proper snacks you will always remain master of the situation and will receive a stimulating effect but not intoxication. Some people say that vodka is insidious. But itself, vodka can't be insidious. Just need to know how to drink it.

"scientists tried to find the best accompaniment to vodka for two hundred years, but they couldn't find nothing better then salted cucumber" Anton Chekhov
